The Island Bristles With Political Facts and Rumors.

SEVEN HUNDRED TAKE THE OATH.

The Waialua Water Case in Court Agate—Hawaii's Rejoice in the Appointment of Mr. Laws as Auditor-General—Other Matters of Interest.

MAUI, April 21.—The island is bristling with political items and rumors. When in doubt as to interesting news, politics is the trump card to play.

W. F. Pogue, of Makawao, received strong backing from the Hana Union Club for nomination as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention, but he declines to run in Iosepa's favor.

It is rumored that G. W. Smith, of Benson & Smith, was asked to run by Waialua American Unionists, but has declined the honor.

Kula has a cosmopolitan gathering of small farmers—300 or 400 Chinese, 200 Japanese, a large colony of Portuguese, and a small collection of natives. The Portuguese are prejudiced against the Japs in the matter of plowing. The current prices for plowing land per acre among the former range from $5 to $12, while the latter plow any sort of soil at $2.50 per acre, using an unique tool which simply scratches the ground and requires the work of but one horse.

The San Miguel men "out-herd" the most radical Americans in their Americanism.

As to registration of voters, probably at a low estimate more than 700 names have been placed upon the lists of Maui, about 300 in Makawao, probably over 200 in Hana as their club numbers more than that figure, and the remaining 200 is small for Waialua and Lahaina, Waialua alone having registered about 100 and still at it.

The regular monthly meeting of the Haleakala Club was held at the old foreign church last Thursday evening, 19th inst.

It is reported that a paper with twenty-five tax-payers' names will be forwarded today to the Minister of Interior backing M. A. Gonsalves, of Honolulu, as a candidate. This paper has been in circulation in Waialua during the present week, but according to the fourteen days' limit in the election law, it will not accomplish the desired result.

STRAY SCRIBBLINGS.

That "stereotyped" trouble, the "Waialua water case," was again revived during Wednesday, the 18th inst., before the Commissioner, Judge Robertson, at Waialua Court House. Messrs. Hatch, Neumann and V. V. Ashford represented the plaintiffs (Speckels and the Waialua natives), while W. A. Kinney alone appeared for the defendant (Waialua plantation). The latter distinguished himself in the severe cross-examination of the many witnesses that took the stand during the last three or four days. It is stated that the plaintiffs rested their case yesterday afternoon, the 20th inst., and the session was prolonged until 11 o'clock last evening, hoping to finish today (Saturday, 21st), before the sailing of the Claudine. Arthur Wilder acted in the capacity of court stenographer.

The recent appointment of Auditor-General meets with great approval on Maui, though the hosts of Makawao friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. Laws keenly regret the loss of two most influential and popular people from the community.

Attorney-General W. O. Smith has been the guest of Mr. C. B. Wells of Waialua during the week.

T. L. Wooster, the San Francisco agent of the Kahului store is at present with A. F. Hopke at Kahului.

Miss Kellogg and Mr. E. Dowsett have been entertained by Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wilder of Kahului during the past week.

Mrs. Hatch and daughter of Honolulu have been at Dr. Herbert's in Waialua during several days of the present week.

On Friday evening, the 20th inst., Mrs. Gans delivered a lecture on Scotland at the Hamskuapoko church. The lady's descriptions and remarks were made interesting by over one hundred stereopticon views. The entertainment was fairly attended and pronounced "very good" by some of the audience present.

Ex-Judge Keat of Hana has been visiting John Kalama of Makawao recently.

On June 11th seven schools of Waialua and Makawao will hold a Sunday school convention at Pookela Church, Makawao.

Auctioneer H. B. Bailey will sell the entire household effects of Mr. and Mrs. H. Laws of Paia on Thursday, the 20th inst., beginning at 9 a. m. Gripps has attacked Kahului as well as Makawao.

A great deal of smoke has been visible during the latter part of the week caused by the burning of trash at Spreckelsville.

The John Bailey is taking in sugar slowly, and the Oceania Vasee and Maid of Orleans are patiently waiting for a cargo.

Quite a large amount of Pala and Haiku sugar is awaiting shipment at Kahului, though by a different line of vessels than those above mentioned.

Weather: One or two heavy rains in localities.

A native created quite an excitement yesterday afternoon, by running up Nuuanu street, shouting, at the top of his voice, that five English men-of-war had been telephoned and that the queen was to be restored this morning, or possibly as soon as the ships got in the harbor.

PORTUGUESE FOR THE ISLANDS.

Contracts Signed for Labor for Hawaiian Planters.

The contracting of the Portuguese of Santa Clara for labor at the Hawaiian Islands by Harry Shore, of this place, has created a stir among the Portuguese of this place, and a large number are being signed daily. Several hundred are wanted. The first shipment was made on Saturday, when fifteen from here and 100 from Oakland were sent to the islands. They receive a monthly salary of $18 and their lodgings, food, water and medical attendance free. Heretofore the planters on the islands depended upon Japan as a never-failing source of labor supply, but since the ascendancy of the Provisional Government the Japanese Immigration Bureau has stubbornly refused to allow any more men to leave for the islands, hence the planters find themselves with their labor contracts expiring and no new men to take the places of the departing Japs. They have turned to California, where the Portuguese, who formerly resided on the islands, are numerous.—San Jose Mercury, April 9th.

WOODCOCK'S LITTLE GAME.

A Charming Entertainment at the Home of J. F. Brown.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brown was the scene of a most delightful party last evening. The proceedings were opened by the performance of a play—a two-act farce—entitled "Woodcock's Little Game." This farce depicts the trials of a married man with his mother-in-law. The plot is happily disentangled, without any tragedy. The cast was as follows:

Marmaduke Woodcock.....J. F. Brown
Christopher Larkings.....G. F. Potter
Mr. Swansdown.....W. F. Prosser
David.....Geo. F. Paris
Mrs. Col. Carver.....Mrs. W. W. Dimond
Mrs. Chris. Larkings.....Miss McGrew
Mrs. Marmaduke Woodcock.....Mrs. Van Vliet
Susan.....Mrs. Albert Horner

All the parts were well sustained, the leading roles being given by Mrs. W. W. Dimond, Miss McGrew and J. F. Brown.

After the play, which lasted about an hour, dancing was begun and kept up until late. The usual light refreshments were served.

About 175 guests were present.

W. C. ACHI.

He Will Not Be a Candidate for the Convention.

W. C. Achi announced when in Kona his intention to be a candidate for election to the approaching Constitutional Convention. He has duly qualified by paying his taxes and registering.

Mr. Achi will have to wait, however, until the next time. The petition of voters from Kona is defective, because it contains the names of only thirteen persons, instead of the required twenty-five. The petition has been thrown out on this account.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. Suffered From Birth With a Severe Form of

Scrofula Humor

"Until my boy was six years of age he was from birth a terrible sufferer from scrofula humor. Sores would appear on him and spread until as large as a dollar and then discharge, followed by others, so that the larger part of his body was one mass of sores all the time, especially severe on his legs and back of his ears and on his head. The humor had a very offensive odor, and caused

Intense Itching

We cannot tell how that poor boy suffered in all those years. Physicians did not effect a cure. At last I decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, as my druggist recommended it. In about two weeks the Sarsaparilla began to have effect. The sores commenced to heal up; the flesh began to look more natural and healthy. Then the scales came off and all over his body new and healthy flesh and skin formed. When he had taken two bottles he was entirely free from sores, having only the scars to show where they had been. These have all disappeared. We are unable to express our thanks for the good

HOW BABIES SUFFER From Torturing Humors

When their tender SKINS are literally ON FIRE with ITCHING AND BURNING ECZEMAS and other Itching, Scaly, and Blotchy Skin and Scalp Diseases, none but mothers realize.

To know that a single application of the Cuticura Remedies will, in the great majority of cases, afford instant and complete relief, permit rest and sleep, and point to a permanent and economical (because so speedy) cure, and not to use them without a moment's delay, is to be guilty of positive inhumanity. No greater legacy can be bestowed upon a child than a skin without blemish and a body nourished with pure blood.

CUTICURA

Remedies are the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies, are absolutely pure, and may be used from pimples to scrofula, from infancy to age, with the most gratifying and unfailing success.

TREATMENT.—CUTICURA, the great skin cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite skin purifier and beautifier, externally, instantly allay the most intense itching, burning, and inflammation, soothe and heal raw and irritated surfaces, clear the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, and restore the hair, while CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood and skin purifier and greatest of humor remedies, cleanses the blood of all impurities and poisonous elements, and thus removes the cause.

"ALL ABOUT THE BLOOD, SKIN, SCALP, AND HAIR," mailed free to any address, 64 pages, 250 illustrations, 100 Testimonials. A book of priceless value to mothers, affording information not obtainable elsewhere.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are sold throughout the world. Price, CUTICURA, 50c.; CUTICURA SOAP, 25c.; CUTICURA RESOLVENT, 5c. Prepared by PUTTER DRUG & CHEMICAL CO.'S, Boston, U. S. A.

red, rough, and itchy skin and hands, and simple humors, and skin blemishes of infancy and childhood are prevented and cured by that most effective of all Skin Purifiers and Beautifiers, the celebrated Cuticura Soap.
